

Claims

- [c1] The idea of mixing together medicines available “over the counter” produces a new medication. When being applied into the nasal cavity, it effectively treats unwanted deposits by virtue of it being present on the surface.